REPORT OF THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES

Librarian Agnes Knight has announced her retirement after more than twenty years of service to the town of Hampton Falls.

The many people who knocked on her door and were graciously welcomed even at odd hours of the day, will miss her.

Unescorted children found her loving home a haven of comfort and inspiration, long before the days of bookmobiles. Her spontaneous story hours have delighted many.

Miss Knight was born on December 19, 1882 in her present home on Exeter Road and has always lived there. Her father, Henry H. Knight, was born in the original family home which was situated across the street until 1914. Her mother, Ruth Green, was a Kensington girl.

Miss Knight attended the little schoolhouse, a short distance from her home, now occupied by Mrs. Rose Nitka.

She was graduated from the Erstwhile Robinson Seminary in Exeter in 1901 and furthered her education in the Normal Department there, through 1902. She is a member of the Unitarian Church in Hampton Falls and belonged to the Unitarian Alliance in Exeter. She is a member of the Eastern Star and an early member of the Grange. Her special interest lies in caring for the birds which flock to her home.

Miss Knight has made her mark through her loving unselfish interest in the people of the town and we thank her.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES

A Septic tank system and toilet facilities have been installed in the library during the past year, according to the approved article in last years Town Warrant.

The Friends of the Library and the State Library Association contributed $75.00 and $100.00 respectfully towards the purchase of the Americana Encyclopedia for the library.

Several new bookstacks were purchased and fluorescent lamps installed on each stack to improve the lighting in the library.

The Grange presented a 1969 subscription of the National Geographic Society Magazine to the library.

$300.00 was realized from the sale of old furniture and books, not useful to the library.

The Friends contributed a table for the childrens corner and have helped the librarian to weed old books from the shelves.

THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

A successful year is reported by the Friends of the Library.

The accomplishments in 1968 include the purchase of childrens books, a table for the children's area, a bulletin board and a kitchen worktable. The annual Book Review contest for the pupils of the Lincoln Akerman School and the monthly Story Hour are sponsored by the Friends. Work parties have been held to assist the Librarian, and the library was decorated at Christmas.

A wide variety of entertaining and thought-provoking programs have been presented at the monthly meeting, and have been well received.

Membership in the Friends is open to all townspeople interested in improving library facilities through volunteer effort and maintaining the cultral center of the community.

There were 43 calls on our list last year; three of which were very serious—that being Stickney's, Burkes and Weaver's.

We also kept busy working on the station and having our drills on Tues. nights—which we invite anyone to attend.

Our bean suppers which are held—two in the spring and two in the fall are very popular. The Village Green Fair, held jointly with the Ladies Aux. was a tremendous success.

The Department bought 19 new raincoats for $694.00 and they have been distributed to the active firemen. Several hand lanterns were also purchased.

We had a busy and successful year; and once again the Department wishes to extend their gratitude to all the help the Ladies Aux. has given us—financially and serving coffee, etc. when the time arises.

The Department books are open to all residents of Hampton Falls who are interested in joining the Fire Department or Ladies Aux.

The Department regular meetings are held the first Tues. of the month, with drills the other Tues. nights.

TOWN WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF THE VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

In its efforts to assist the Volunteer Fire Department, the Womens' Auxiliary was able to contribute a new high of $2,000.00 this year.

Some of our money raising projects are annually held in cooperation with the Fire Department, such as the Village Green Fair in June which this year brought us $1,684.00, the Annual Firemens Dance, and the Fire Wardens supper. Other projects are ours, such as food sales and card parties.

All women are welcome and invited to join the Auxiliary which meets at the fire station on the first Monday of every month. Refreshments are part of every meeting.

The Auxiliary thanks all who contributed to make 1968 a profitable year.

As Chief of Police of Hampton Falls, I submit this report to you, having discharged my duties to the best of my abilities this past year as listed in the foregoing report.

Compared to surrounding towns, I think we are very fortunate not to have had any more crime than we have had this past year.

Another frequency has been added to our radio communications by the State Police, which has given us more needed coverage.

Submitting this report, we cannot forget the help received from Seabrook, Hampton, Exeter, North Hampton, Kensington, Sheriff Dept. and State Police. I am happy to have been able to stay within the budget.

REPORT OF THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Your Conservation Commission has very little to report this year. We had only one meeting to discuss problems and aims. There has been very little activity other than this as there have been no hearings on Marshland and no action in this area. As you know our mission is to act on your behalf in matters which affect the future of open and natural areas in this locale. We shall continue to be watchful of matters which affect these areas and bring them to your attention and take the necessary action.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Members of the Hampton Falls School Board:

I respectfully submit to you my third annual report as Superintendent of Schools in the Hampton Falls School District.

During the days just prior to the opening of schools in Supervisory 21 a special meeting of all district principals was held. The purpose of this session was to set the stage for improved public relations. The tone of the entire meeting was to stress the fact that there exists a communications gap between home and school. As a part of the program presented we invited representatives from the news media to a round table discussion. For approximately two hours a great deal of healthy dialogue was generated. The media specialists advised us as to the procedures we might follow to strengthen and bridge the gap. It was a most rewarding experience to say the least. I have seen in the relatively short time since that session until this writing some remarkable effort along the public relations front. Teachers are involved in this operation and it is well that they should be. We need to "tell it like it is" when we relate school matters to our citizens. Supervisory Union 21 is not alone in this communications lag for I have read that on a nationwide level over 50% of proposed bond issues for new school construction were turned down by voters. This indicates to me that citizens are not well informed on school problems. This situation has resulted through no fault of the taxpayers. Hundreds of school systems budget annually large sums of money to help foster good relations with the several "publics" they serve. This is money well spent provided the program is well developed and on-going throughout the calendar year. School men should realize that sound programs of public relations are not made up of gimmicks or "bags of tricks" but simply the ability to convert ordinary communication into something more meaningful and appropriate.

The problems yet to be solved in the schools of this state are closely tied to receipt of additional state financial assistance. The local taxpayer has carried an impossible burden in this state and there is wide-spread reluctance to shoulder additional expense.

Consider if you will, however, the dilemma this places your school board and school administrators in. While we are still experiencing a steadily rising school population we must realistically plan for this growth. We would therefore be remiss in our duties and responsibilities if we did not bring these matters out into the open. We are not asking for anything that we cannot justify in the budget currently under study and preparation.

Last year in my annual report I listed motivation and organization for change as being a troublesome task for there is resistance to innovation and change by those who think change is frivolous and therefore expensive. The education enterprise cannot operate by maintaining the status-quo in the decade just ahead. This problem in my estimation must be met squarely by better coordination and cooperation of the total staff. Everyone must become involved.

The voices of the teachers are getting louder and stronger as they show concern for the problems within their profession. This movement is a general one being carried on across the nation. Almost daily we read of teacher unrest as it especially comes close to their own welfare. In New Hampshire there is already formed a systematic network of communication designed to keep teachers abreast of legislative decisions emanating out of Concord. We are facing a critical period here in New Hampshire when one considers the problems of the teaching profession. We can all expect to hear more about state minimum salaries, state negotiation laws, teacher supply and demand, curriculum revision and standardization, program evaluation, to mention but a few.

As we study the 1968-69 school budget appropriations in Supervisory Union 21 we note that the grand total of the eight districts amounts to $3,581,983.45. Readers will agree that local school business is indeed "big" business. Interesting also is the fact the total amount appropriated to pay instructional salaries for 1968-69 in Supervisory Union 21 amounts to $1,832,225.00 or 51.2% of the total appropriation. The total professional staff numbers 243. Some critics have been heard remarking about the high cost of administering the school program whereby the fact of the matter is that for 1968-69 a mere 2.6% was earmarked for administration.

During the course of the school year administrators and school board members alike keep a sharp eye on the enrollment pattern. Many of the items placed in the budget must reflect the enrollment projection.

At the end of November in 1967 there were 4175 students enrolled in the eleven schools of the Supervisory Union as compared to 4364 at the same time in 1968. This is a jump of 189 in one year. Let me take you back a bit further to compare enrollment of November 1966 with that of 1965. In 1966 there were 4000 students against 3890 in 1965 or an increase of 110. There is a strong indication that our growth is being stepped up as time marches on. There is of course a whole set of obvious problems and urgencies connected with a rising school population that does not need discussion in this report.

The enrollment statistics as of January 2, 1969 are as follows:

Hampton Falls citizens have come to grips with its school housing problems. The completed addition to the Lincoln Ackerman School stands as testimony to the realization of a school district's responsibility in providing adequate space for its school pupils.

As school people we must continue to properly evaluate our methods and techniques used in teaching. This year teachers and administrators have spent considerable time in studying curriculum. Several staff members are enrolled in graduate courses offered by nearby colleges and universities. At this writing there are two extension courses scheduled to commence in mid-January. One is offered by Boston University and will deal in family living education. This course will be held in the Seabrook Elementary School. The other, a University of New Hampshire course, will deal with the teaching of Reading scheduled to be held at the Marston School in Hampton. It is expected that some 60 or 70 teachers will enroll in these valuable courses.

The chart below lists the budget appropriations (exclusive of bond issues) for all districts in Union 21. This chart shows dollar amounts spent for costs of administration complete with the percentage factor. Also included in column III is the amount expended for instructional salaries with the appropriate percentage of the total budget. At the bottom is presented the overall totals and averages.

It is my pleasure to be associated with the Lincoln Ackerman School and to be sharing in the educational program. A great deal of credit is due your school board for the untold number of hours they devote to Hampton Falls school programs as well as to the problems of the entire supervisory union. Your principal and staff are to be commended for their unselfish and dedicated workmanship.

Respectfully submitted,
Paul L. O'Neil
